Safety Needles and Syringes

McKesson Prevent® M safety needles and syringes are innovatively designed to help protect healthcare professionals from sharps-related injuries. The needle-based safety technology features safety shields with audible and tactile click activation. The self-leveling needle caps utilize the OSHA-recommended technique for passive recapping to help maintain safety. McKesson Prevent® M safety needles and syringes come with precision-engineered needles that minimize muscle tissue trauma. Healthcare professionals can connect the needles to most standard luer lock syringes for personal convenience.

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

- One-handed safety activation via multiple methods (finger, thumb, or surface) enables clinical flexibility
- Robust safety shield covers entire needle cannula for enhanced protection
- Needle bevel is aligned with safety mechanism for low angle injection
- Available in various sizes, colors and gauge options
- Sterile and disposable for single patient use
- Not made with natural rubber latex
